Before I proceed, I must first apologize for this unsolicited letter to you. I am aware that this is certainly not a conventional way of approach to establish a relationship of trust, but you will realize the need for my action. I am Barrister David Martins, an English solicitor working with Campo&Carrasco Abogado. I got your contact information from public records while searching for a last name similar to my late client Eng. [redacted] an expatriate engineer and Casino owner for thirteen years. He died along with his family on a car accident along Madrid express road, which occurred on Monday 27 December 2004.

Before his death, he deposited the sum of $13.75M with a Security Company here in Spain as family valuables. But he did not disclose the content of deposited diplomatic consignment to the security company. The Security Company has mandated me to present any family heir/inheritor for claim before the trunk gets confiscated as an unclaimed. So I decided to search for any of my late client's relative which has been very difficult for me, as he did not declare any other person, address, partner or relatives in the official paper works of his deposit.

Against this backdrop, my suggestion to you is that I will like you as a foreigner to stand as the next of kin to Eng. [redacted] my late client, since you both share the same last name so that the money will be released to you. With my position as his lawyer, I will now place your name as the next of kin to my late client. I will prepare every relevant document that will assist your claims, and facilitate the release of the fund.

Note that this transaction is risk free. There is no atom of risk in connection to this business as I have worked out all modalities to complete the transaction successfully. Once the money is released to you, we shall share in the ratio of 45% for me, 45% for you as your benefit and 10% for any expenses involved on the process of this transaction. Reply via fax above or private email: davidmartins0012@yahoo.es. Please be kind to get back to me if you are not interested so that I can further my search for another partner. I am also open for your call as I have left my line below.

Best Regards

David Martins.
